

FICCI Selects Dr Kharul's Start-up!

LockheedMartin, Stanford business school, I2C (UTexas), FICCI, DST and IUSTF gave a nation-wide call in March 2016 to select promising technologies from India for further handholding. Out of 3000 technologies screened in the first round, they selected 30 through various rounds. The first 10 will get training at silicon valley, next 10 at Univ of Texas and remaining 10 will have an opportunity to present to investors for possible funding and also will have handholding by FICCI.

Genrich Membranes Pvt. Ltd. (www.genrichmembranes.com), a start-up company that has come out of PSE Div and promoted by Dr Ulhas Kharul, is one of the tens, selected for possible funding by FICCI.
